

RULES OF THE ROAD

We will be traveling together for 19 days. Let's make the most of this time by working together to make this the best possible experience for all of us.

- 1) Always display a positive attitude.
- 2) Use common courtesies:
 - ✓ Always say, "May I...", "Please...", and "Thank you."
 - ✓ Always remove your hat indoors.
 - ✓ When eating, always wait for everyone at your table to be served before beginning.
 - ✓ When leaving a group, excuse yourself.
- 3) Listen when others are speaking.
- 4) Show respect for each other and their belongings.
- 5) Be punctual! To be early is to be on time.
 To be on time is to be late.
 To be late is to be left behind.
- 6) Follow the dress code.
- 7) Obey curfew. You must remain in room after bed check.
- 8) Keep the noise down in hotels. Remember, there are other guests in the hotel. You may socialize in the hotel lobby or in other designated areas. No mixed sexes in the same room!!
- 9) If there is free time in the evening and we are in an appropriate location, you may be given an opportunity to explore the area. You must notify a leader when you are leaving and when you return. You must be in a group of at least five people, preferably with at least 1 male.
- 10) Remember: Absolutely NO drugs, driving, tobacco products, new body piercings, tattooing, weapons, hair coloring, or physical intimacy!!
- 11) If there is a problem, tell a leader!!

POSSIBLE CONSEQUENCES

- 1) Warning
- 2) Loss of free time.
- 3) Spend the day with the leaders.
- 4) Phone call home at your parent's expense.
- 5) Fly home early.

I understand these rules, as well as the rules stated in my Ambassador Protocol, and agree to abide by these rules. I understand that I will receive consequences for breaking any rules.
